

This page has been downloaded from www.macmillanenglish.com/younglearners © Macmillan Publishers 2010

This page has been downloaded from www.macmillanenglish.com/younglearners © Macmillan Publishers 2010

Unit 1 He is/She is/They are reading. Is he/Is she/Are they reading?

This page has been downloaded from www.macmillanenglish.com/younglearners © Macmillan Publishers 2010

Grammar in conversation

1 (a) Look, listen and read.

B

- 2 A Listen and say.
- 3 Now you!

Reading

A week with Grandma and Grandpa

It is Monday. Grandpa is picking beans. Amy and Sam are helping.

It is Tuesday. Grandma is washing carrots. Sam is not washing the carrots.

He is counting.

It is Wednesday. Grandpa is picking apples. Amy is catching the apples.

(n) Amy are carrying boxes.

Sample marketing text © Macmillan Publishers LTD

It is Friday. Sam is brushing the steps.

Amy is carrying

It is Sunday. Grandpa, Grandma, Mum, Dad, Sam and Amy are eating lunch. They are drinking orange juice. There is a big apple cake. Mmm! Delicious!

It is Saturday. Amy and Sam are not helping today. They are waiting. A car is coming.

28

Unit 1 Reading: a story with repeated language

This page has been downloaded from www.macmillanenglish.com/younglearners © Macmillan Publishers 2010

Reading comprehension

1 Read. Circle the correct ending.

1 It is Monday. Amy and Sam are picking beans.

2 It is Tuesday. Grandma is washing

Sam. ca

carrots.

3 It is Wednesday. Amy is catching apples.

carrots.

oranges.

4 It is Thursday. Grandma is cleaning.

cooking.

5 It is Friday. Amy is carrying beautiful flowers.

yellow.

6 It is Saturday. The children are washing.

waiting.

7 It is Sunday. They are eating

apples.

unch.

MACMILLAN EDUCATION

1 Look and say. Sample marketing text © Macmillan Publishers LTD

c ake

ake make

bake

g)(at

2 Listen, read and say.

Make a cake, bake a cake,

Carry the cake to Grandma.

Eat the cake, finish the cake,

Shut the gate for Grandma.

This page has been downloaded from www.macmillanenglish.com/younglearners © Macmillan Publishers 2010

Class composition

It is Monday.

Sam is carrying boxes.

1 Read the words.

eat pick help carry watch drink cook

2 Look at the pictures. Write the story.

Class composition: a story with repeated language Unit 1